

INNOVATION DAY – Global Education Conference

Sport Integrity Australia’s “Innovation Day” is designed to excite, engage and inspire anti-doping education practitioners around the world by showcasing innovative approaches to learning.

8:15 – 9:15 am
CCQ Breakfast hosted by WADA Hosted by WADA Senior Manager, Research and Policy, Tony Cunningham
9:15 – 9:25 am
Opening address: Welcome to Innovation Day Sport Integrity Australia CEO David Sharpe
9:30 – 10:30 am (select one)	Demonstration: Ethical Decision Making in Virtual Reality Should you take a dodgy-but-legal substance before a race? Report a teammate acting suspiciously? These scenarios present real-life examples of ethically grey scenarios people might face in sport. In this session, you're invited to don your 'athlete' hat and join Sport Integrity Australia to experience an exciting new values-based education session using virtual reality technology.	Demonstration: Values Based Education through Theatresports Theatresports is a performance-based education session that explores the consequences of doping through entertaining and thought provoking performances. This session will bring anti-doping issues to life through professional actors and audience engagement. The technique lets athletes experience and respond to real-life situations in a safe environment.	Hands-on: Digital Technologies in Learning Augmented reality. Google Glass. Gamification. Artificial Intelligence in Education. Curious about what new technologies are on the horizon and how they apply to education and learning? Join Australian company and Sport Integrity Australia partner Maxart to test-drive cutting edge VR and AR developments and hear how technology can transform education.
10:40 – 11:40 pm (select one)	Demonstration: Ethical Decision Making in Virtual Reality (repeat)	Demonstration: Values Based Education through Theatresports (repeat)	Hands-on: Digital Technologies in Learning (repeat)
11:40 – 1:40 pm
Regional Conversations with WADA Director and WADA Education Committee Chair In this session we will split into four regions to provide an opportunity to connect with neighbouring colleagues. Each region will also spend 30 minutes with WADA's Director Education Amanda Hudson and Education Committee Chair Kadi Tounkara. Lunch will be served during this period, and attendees will also have the opportunity to try their hand at Oceania outreach activities and play with emerging technologies like Virtual Reality headsets and Augmented Reality tools.
1:50pm – 2:35 pm (select one) Sessions TBC	Demonstration: Clean Sport Education in Schools DFSNZ delivers education to more than 2000 youth athletes a year. Join them to see what a clean sport school session looks like in action.	Workshop: Animation development on a shoestring Join Sport Integrity Australia digital education experts for a workshop on how to create quick, easy, effective animations for less than $300 USD per year.	Demonstration: Social Issues in Sport Join an Australian National Sporting Organisation to see how they educate on issues like illicit drug use, sexism, racism and homophobia in sport.
2:40pm – 4:15 pm Presentations TBC	Innovation in Action We know that engaging athletes and support personnel in anti-doping education can be challenging. In this session, practitioners from ADOs around the world are invited on stage to showcase their best face-to-face or outreach education learning activity. Each learning activity must relate to one of the core anti-doping topics included in the International Standard of Education (for example: the risk of supplements, the 11 ADRVs, the consequences of doping, how to apply for TUEs etc).
