

Consequences of non-compliance for Pan American Sports Organization (Panam Sports)

1. Panam Sports will lose its WADA Privileges until Reinstatement (see International Standard for Code Compliance by Signatories (ISCCS) Article B.3.1 (a)), i.e.:
 - a. In accordance with the relevant provisions of WADA's Statutes, Panam Sports' Representatives will be ineligible to hold any WADA office or any position as a member of any WADA board or committee or other body (including but not limited to membership on WADA's Foundation Board, the Executive Committee, any Standing Committee, and any other committee).
 - b. Panam Sports will be ineligible to host any event hosted or organized or co-hosted or co-organized by WADA.
 - c. Panam Sports's Representatives will be ineligible to participate in any WADA Independent Observer Program or WADA Outreach Program or other WADA activities.
 - d. Panam Sports will not receive any WADA funding (either directly or indirectly) relating to the development of specific activities or participation in specific programs.
2. Panam Sports's Representatives will be ineligible to sit as members of the boards or committees or other bodies of any Signatory (or its members) or association of Signatories until Panam Sports is Reinstated (see ISCCS Article B.3.1 (d)); and
3. There will be Supervision of the entire testing program implemented by Panam Sports at its Events at Panam Sports's expense until Reinstatement.

The CRC also recommended, in accordance with ISCCS Article 11.2.1, that Panam Sports be required to satisfy the outstanding critical requirements and to comply with the above-mentioned consequences in order to be reinstated to the list of compliant Signatories.
