WADA is committed to improving regional and gender representation within its governance bodies, including Standing Committees. We invite applicants to provide their nationality and gender identity for consideration when assessing the composition of such committees. These characteristics may also be used by WADA to produce aggregate statistics and reports on the composition of its Standing Committees.

Nationality

Gender Identity

Standing Committee

Please select which Standing Committee(s) you are applying for, relevant to your expertise:

- Education Committee
- Finance and Administration Committee
- Health, Medical and Research Committee

Summary of Expertise

Please provide a brief summary of your qualifications and expertise in support of the Standing Committee(s) identified above.

Submitting your Application

In order to be properly considered, applicants must submit:

- a copy of this completed form;
- a maximum one-page cover (motivational) letter, expressing the candidate's reasons for their interest in the position(s);
- an updated curriculum vitae, which fully captures the candidate's experience and expertise; and
- a completed Declaration of Independence form, confirming that WADA's Operational and Personal Independence criteria are met.

In the absence of providing these documents, applications will not be retained.

It is recommended, but not required, that applicants for the positions of Standing Committee members provide a letter of endorsement from a recognized anti-doping stakeholder.

Applications are to be forwarded by Friday 11 September 2026 to Mr. Olivier Niggli, WADA Director General (c/o governance@wada-ama.org). Please refer to the call for interest published by WADA on 21 May 2026 for more information.

By submitting your application, you accept and understand that this form and associated application materials (including personal information contained in these documents) will be collected and reviewed by WADA and the relevant Standing Committee Chair(s) for the purposes of reviewing, evaluating and approving candidacies in accordance with WADA's Governance Regulations and Privacy Policy.
