----- Article 6 - Foundation Board -----

The Foundation Board will initially be composed of at least ten members. This number may be increased to a total of no more than 40 members. The members of the Foundation Board are personalities appointed for a period of three years. They may be re-elected for a maximum of two further three-year periods, with a maximum of twelve years of presence as member or deputy of the Foundation Board or of the Executive Committee. These limitations on reappointment, which shall not apply to the President and Vice-President, shall be applicable to each member of the Foundation Board for his/her next appointment or reappointment to the Foundation Board. As a transition, members having reached nine years, but not reached the maximum of twelve years of presence at their next appointment, may be reappointed one more time, but only for a period until they have reached the maximum of twelve years of presence. The first members of the Foundation Board, including the first President, will be appointed by the founder. The Foundation Board will be added to in accordance with the following principles:

1. A maximum of 18 members will be appointed by the Olympic Movement, with the allocation of seats to be defined in the rules which the Foundation Board will enact. Among these 18 members, at least 4 will be athletes. -----
2. A maximum of 18 members will be appointed by the intergovernmental organizations, governments, public authorities or other public bodies involved in the fight against doping in sport (hereinafter “public authorities”), with the allocation of seats to be defined in the rules which the Foundation Board will enact. -----
3. The other members will, if necessary, be appointed by the Foundation Board upon the joint proposal of the Olympic Movement and the public authorities. -----
4. In order to guarantee continuity within the Foundation Board, at the end of the first three-year mandate, that is at the end of 2002, the newly designated members will be, by consensus or in lack thereof by random draw, divided into three categories: -----

Category 1: one-year mandate, that is until the end of 2003-----

Category 2: two-year mandate, that is until the end of 2004-----

Category 3: three-year mandate, that is until the end of 2005 -----

In the appointment of members the proportion of representatives for each category/region will be respected as much as possible. -----

At the end of 2004, the length of the mandate of the new members/renewed members shall be of three years. -----

As a general rule, when it is renewed and added to, the Foundation Board will seek to ensure that parity is maintained between, on one side, the members of the Foundation Board representing the Olympic Movement (viz. the IOC, ASOIF, AIOWF, GAISF, ANOC and the IOC Athletes' Commission), and, on the other side, those representing the public authorities. The provisions of paragraph 6 below are reserved. -----

5. The Foundation Board may also invite a limited number of intergovernmental organizations or other international organizations to act in a consultative capacity for the Foundation. Such organizations, which will be invited on the basis of their legitimate interest in the work of the Foundation and their powers in the corresponding areas, may take part in the discussions of the Foundation Board but may not vote when the Foundation Board takes decisions. -----
6. To the extent that the annual allocations or contributions to the budget of the Foundation paid pursuant to article 13, paragraph 1 below, by the Olympic Movement on one side, and by the public authorities on the other side, are equivalent, each of the two parties, namely the Olympic Movement on one side, and the public authorities on the other side, will be entitled to designate an equal number of Foundation Board members. Failing such equivalent annual allocations by each of the two above-mentioned parties, the number of Foundation Board members who may be designated by the party whose allocation actually paid is lower will be at least one fewer than the number of members designated by the other party. This system will apply for as long as the annual allocations or contributions to the Foundation budget paid by the two above-mentioned parties are not equivalent.

Government representatives from a country which has not paid its due, or whose country has not adhered to the UNESCO International Convention on Doping in Sport, will not be eligible to sit on the Foundation Board or the Executive Committee. On 1st January of each year, any Foundation Board or Executive Committee member representing a country which has not paid its due for the previous year, representing a country in which the National Anti-Doping Organization has been declared not to be in compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code, or representing a signatory to the World Anti-Doping Code that has been declared not to be in compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code will automatically lose its seat as a Foundation Board or Executive Committee member. The same rule shall also apply to membership of ad hoc or standing committees, however, for specific expertise requirement, the chair of the committee, in agreement with the President and the Director General, may nevertheless grant membership to an independent expert. -----

7. The Foundation Board may depart from the rules laid down in paragraphs 1 to 6 above by a two-thirds majority decision on the part of its members present at the time of the vote. -----
8. The Foundation Board will see to it that its members, the members of the Executive Committee and any other person acting on behalf of the Foundation in whatever capacity respect the fundamental principles of ethics, in particular those with regard to dignity, integrity and impartiality. They must be independent and free of undue influence when fulfilling their duties. The Foundation Board may issue specific rules on independence and conflict of interest to support this objective. -----
9. The Foundation Board may establish an Independent Ethics Board and adopt a Code of Ethics to ensure the compliance of WADA officials with the rules of ethical conduct. The members of the Independent Ethics Board will be appointed by the Foundation Board upon the recommendations of the Nominations Committee. -----

----- Article 7 - Organization of the Foundation Board -----

The Foundation Board is an equal partnership between the Olympic Movement and the public authorities. The Foundation Board is self-organized. It elects from its members, or from personalities chosen outside of its members, a President and a Vice-President for a period of three years. The President and Vice-President may be re-elected for a further three-year period. The President and the Vice-President must be independent from the public authorities and the Olympic Movement.

The President is elected before the Vice-President by an absolute majority of the members present at the time of the vote. The Vice-President is elected after the President by the same majority. The President and the Vice-President become members of the Foundation Board as soon as they have been elected. However, they do not take part in the vote for the renewal of their mandate or the election of their successors. The President does not take part in the vote for a Vice-President and the Vice-President does not take part in the vote for the President.

If there is more than one candidate for either of the positions of President or Vice-President, successive rounds of voting will be organized. The candidate having the lesser number of votes in each round will be eliminated. In the case of a tie among two or more candidates, a vote between those candidates will be organized and the candidate having the lesser number of votes will be eliminated. If, following this subsequent vote, there is still a tie, the name of the candidate to be eliminated will be drawn. If the last candidate, or the only candidate, does not obtain an absolute majority in the last voting round, the President or the Vice-President currently in place will remain in his/her position until the next Foundation Board meeting when a new election will be held.-----

----- Article 8 - Meetings and Decisions of the Foundation Board -----

The Foundation Board meets as often as is necessary, but at least once a year. The meetings of the Foundation Board are convened by the President. The President is bound to convene a meeting of the Foundation Board at the written request of at least five members.-----

The meeting of the Foundation Board may also be held by teleconference, videoconference or any such other electronic means that permit all participants to properly communicate with each other. In such case, the President organizes the voting process as he sees fit; the majorities described in the statutes are applicable.

A set of minutes, signed by the President and by the minute-taker, records the deliberations and decisions of the Foundation Board. -----

At meetings, the members of the Foundation Board have the right to ask the persons entrusted with running and representing the Foundation for information on the conduct of the activities of the Foundation and on specified questions. -----

The Foundation Board takes its decisions by an absolute majority of the votes cast by the members present at the time of the vote; in the event of a tie, the President has the casting vote. However, a decision taken by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the members present at the time of the vote is required to transferring the site of the Agency and to appoint and remove members of the Foundation Board or of the Executive Committee.

Furthermore, any proposal requesting the removal of any member of the Foundation Board will only be submitted for voting if it is supported by a majority of all the Foundation Board members, representing a minimum of fifty percent of the members nominated by the public authorities and fifty percent of the members nominated by the Olympic Movement. The provisions of article 16, paragraph 2 of the present statutes are reserved. -----

The decisions of the Foundation Board can also be taken by correspondence (including voting by fax and by email), in accordance with the majorities described in the statutes, without a meeting of the Foundation Board having to be held; the decisions must be recorded in Minutes. -----

With the exception of the President and the Vice-President, each member of the Foundation Board is allowed to nominate in advance at the start of each year, two alternate deputies to represent him/her at the Foundation Board meetings, but the member can only be represented once during a calendar year by one of the two deputies and on the condition that the member is unable to participate, either physically or through video- or telephone conference at the Foundation Board meeting. Such deputies shall have the same rights and obligations as the represented member, including voting rights, which they shall exercise in the name and on behalf of the represented member in accordance with his/her instructions. Each member shall only be allowed to nominate two deputies per year; the President may approve exceptions, in particular if it is appropriate to ensure the equal representation of the public authorities and the Olympic Movement. The deputies shall only serve for as long as the member is a member of the Foundation Board; exceptions may be granted by the President, provided, however, that deputies may not serve more than twelve years as deputy or member of the Foundation Board or of the Executive Committee. The President may decide to refuse the nomination of a specific deputy; in such a case, the concerned member is entitled to challenge the refusal and request that a decision be taken by the Foundation Board. The member shall register his/her deputies with the list of deputies kept with the Agency's secretary. Deputies are not entitled to appoint their own deputies. The Vice-President shall act as deputy to the President, and vice-versa, but they shall exercise only one voting right, with casting vote in case of a tie. -----

----- Article 11 - Executive Committee -----

The Foundation Board may delegate to an Executive Committee of fourteen members, the majority chosen from amongst the Foundation Board members, the actual management and running of the Foundation, the performance of all its activities and the actual administration of its assets. The Foundation Board may at any time amend such delegation and regain any of the powers delegated to the Executive Committee.

At least two members of the Executive Committee must be chosen from outside the Foundation Board members and must be independent of the Agency, the Olympic Movement and the public authorities. The President and Vice-President of the Foundation Board automatically hold the position of chair and vice-chair of the Executive Committee.

The President may decide to refuse the nomination of a specific deputy; in such a case, the concerned member is entitled to challenge the refusal and request that a decision be taken by the Executive Committee. The deputies may be different from the deputies designated to attend the meetings of the Foundation Board.

The deputies shall have the same rights and obligations as the represented member, including voting rights, which they shall exercise in the name and on behalf of the represented member in accordance with his/her instructions. The deputies may not serve more than twelve years as deputy or member of the Foundation Board or of the Executive Committee, save for the transition period until 31 December 2023. The Executive Committee takes its decisions by an absolute majority of the votes cast by the members present at the time of the vote; in the event of a tie, the chairperson has the casting vote. Furthermore, the decisions of the Executive Committee can also be taken by correspondence (including voting by fax and by email), in accordance with the majorities described in the statutes, without a meeting of the Executive Committee having to be held. In such case, the President organizes the voting process as he sees fit; the majorities described in the statutes are applicable.

In the event of the incapacity or death of a member of the Executive Committee, he will be replaced immediately, either by the Foundation Board, or temporarily by the Executive Committee; such temporary appointment shall become final only upon its ratification by the Foundation Board, no later than during the next meeting of the Foundation Board. -----

A rotation policy shall apply so that one third of the members change every year. The initial appointments will specify those who are appointed for one, two or three years. The composition of committees shall ensure appropriate membership from regions, public authorities, and Olympic Movement and that there be gender and culture balances. As regards member attendance to standing committee meetings, the following principles shall apply:

The mission and organization of the Nominations Committee will be specified in one or more sets of rules which the Foundation Board will promulgate to this end. -----
